Valediction

The seven resources listed below, an extract from from one of which resources is included here, provide the necessary information for the Order of Nine Angles (O9A, ONA) to be understood both in the context of Occult philosophy and in the context of our contemporary societies and their Establishments, with this text thus our adieu.

The material published since 2018 by the Inner O9A, such as O9A Primary Sources and Boundaries of Order of Nine Angles Philosophy and Tests, Logos, And The O9A Aural Code emphasized five things:

<quote>

1. The importance of O9A primary sources in defining and understanding what the O9A is and is-not.

2. What these primary sources are.

3. That the O9A is not a group or organization but the occult philosophy of 'Anton Long' (the Longusian tradition) and is only described in texts authored by 'Anton Long' between 1976-2012.

4. That - and providing citations to and quotations from those texts - the O9A:
i) does not condone, incite or encourage misogyny;
ii) does not advocate 'white supremacism' or promote "extreme violence";
iii) does not teach nor uphold the principle of "the survival of the fittest" or social Darwinism;
iv) does not promote or embrace "radical Islamic jihadist ideology and the violent tactics of jihadist groups";
v) does not have "members" since it is a leaderless esoteric philosophy and praxis, in reality a subculture;
vi) does not have a leader, or an official website, or an official blog, or an "outer representative".

5. The Aeonic Perspective, central to O9A philosophy, which emphasized that the goal of creating new societies and a New Aeon would take centuries to be achieved. Hence, there is no concern with what some have termed 'the great replacement'; no need for so-called 'accelerationism'; and certainly no aim, no desire among us, as many mistakenly believe, to 'seek the violent overthrow [of] Western civilization through violent means,' be such means described by the Establishment and others as terrorism or otherwise.

For not only will that causal entity termed Western civilization naturally decline and fall and be replaced in the not too distant future, probably within the next hundred years or so, but such violent means means will achieve little, if anything, of any consequence in Aeonic terms, as Myatt during his years of neo-nazi activism came to understand from personal experience.

Furthermore:

> "the history of the Order of Nine Angles, 1976-2023, is a very human one: of a new tradition founded on older ones which is developed by its founder over a period of causal time, attracts some followers, and then becomes interpreted or misinterpreted in various ways, internally and externally, leading not only to schism but to it being perceived as a heresy by the Establishment of the day.
> Whether by design or because of fundamental flaws - in this instance the anarchic-nihilistic O9A principle of the authority of individual judgment and the Labyrinthos Mythologicus - it is, de facto and as of 2023 CE, dead and buried."
